

JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE
Nancy Wynne Talks of More June Weddings—She Notes That Many Are Going Away to Summer Resorts and Speaks of the Women at the Convention

AND today we start into the third week of June and more weddings. Not that there are any today, but they are coming. Father Abraham, some um-thousand strong. I can't remember the quotes exactly, but this I know, that this week are all merry marriages.

THEN on the nineteenth there will be Sidney Franklin and Francis Bohlen's wedding in Ardmore, Pa. That's all right, I'm not mixed. Mary Mackenzie Moss, of Bowling Green, Ky., and Eugene Simonin are to be married on the nineteenth, but their wedding is in Kentucky.

So you will agree with me that it is some week of weddings though not as bad as last week. I think of Saturday and Sunday. Another in Chestnut Hill and a fifth in Phoenixville, you just could not get to them all. I didn't get to the first one, but I just heard it. But I must have been pretty, if faintly hot.

PEOPLE are certainly going away and not waiting for the first of next month, as they often do. Such heat as Friday and Saturday will start any one going if he or she can.

THE Duchess will stay with Mr. Sinekson at Narragansett Pier this year. You remember Fanny Sinekson married Tom Dougherty just before the war. Somehow it would not seem like Narragansett Pier without the Sinekson girls there.
